SHARING OUR GIFTS

Autumn is the season for harvesting and sharing the fruits of our labors. This week's scriptures use images of the harvest, family life, pregnancy, and investment to describe the abundant harvest in the reign of God. We discover that sharing the gifts we have been given brings eternal rewards for everyone.

In the Gospel parable a master entrusts his possessions to three servants before going on a journey. Each is given some talents. What they do with those talents determines what the master will do with them when he returns. How about us? What are we doing with our talents? How will our Master treat us when he returns?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Earlier this autumn, we looked at how our Eucharistic Prayers have been enriched by the approval of several new prayers to augment the old Roman Canon. For us, there are the four standard prayers, three for Masses with Children, and the most recent addition, the former Swiss Eucharistic Prayer with four alternative forms (now known as the Eucharistic Prayer for Masses for Various Needs and Occasions).

We also have two Eucharistic Prayers for Masses of Reconciliation. The source for these two prayers is the request by many bishops for a special prayer for the "Holy Year" of 1975. Originally, the committee in charge was commissioned to write a single prayer, but the theme proved so rich that it gave rise to two. The first is based on and develops biblical texts on reconciliation. The second starts with the experience of living in today's fractured world, and how the Spirit calls us to reconciliation and peace. Not everyone was happy with all this creativity, saying that if too many were published, it would be difficult for the Vatican to control further requests. Everyone thought the pope would put strict limits on the prayers, but in the end he said he was willing to open doors that had long been closed. Although he approved them for a period of only three years, they were never formally removed from the Sacramentary and have been incorporated into the new Roman Missal. —Rev. COMPARTIENDO NUESTROS DONES

El otoño es la estación de la cosecha y de compartir los frutos de nuestra labor. Las lecturas bíblicas de esta semana emplean imágenes de la cosecha, la vida familiar, el embarazo y la inversión para describir la abundante cosecha en el Reino de Dios. Descubrimos que compartir los dones que hemos recibido trae recompensa eterna para todos.

En la parábola del Evangelio un hombre le encarga sus bienes a tres servidores antes de partir de viaje. A cada uno le da dinero. Lo que hacen con ese dinero determina lo que el amo hará con ellos cuando regrese. ¿Y qué de nosotros? ¿Qué estamos haciendo con nuestros talentos? ¿Cómo nos tratará nuestro Maestro cuando vuelva?

OREMOS POR LAS VOCACIONES

POPE JOHN PAUL II

Señor Jesús, como llamaste un día a los primeros discípulos para hacerles pescadores de hombres, continúa también haciendo resonar hoy tu dulce invitación: ¡Ven y sígueme! Da a los jóvenes y a las jóvenes la gracia de responder prontamente a tu voz. Sostén en sus fatigas apostólicas a nuestros obispos, sacerdotes y personas consagradas. Da perseverancia a nuestros seminaristas y a todos los que están realizando un ideal de vida totalmente consagrado a tu servicio. Despierta en nuestra comunidad el empeño misionero. Manda, Señor, operarios a tu mies y no permitas que la humanidad se pierda por falta de pastores, de misioneros, de personas entregadas a la causa del Evangelio. María, Madre de la Iglesia, modelo de toda vocación, ayúdanos a decir "sí" al Señor que nos llama a colaborar en el designio divino de salvación. Amén.

Con la confianza de que el Señor acoja nuestras súplicas, invoco la abundancia de los favores celestiales sobre todos vosotros, venerables hermanos en el Episcopado, sobre los sacerdotes, los religiosos y religiosas y sobre todos los fieles, e imparto de corazón la bendición apostólica.

Vaticano, 11 de febrero, memoria litúrgica de Nuestra Señora de Lourdes, del año 1987, IX de nuestro pontificado.
